Minneapolis–Tempo, Minnesota Opera’s membership group for young professionals, announces its largest event of the season, The Rogue Song. On Saturday, March 23, 2013, The Pourhouse will be transformed into a Prohibition-era speakeasy with operatic undertones. Knock twice and tell them Figaro sent you. With six bars, tasty eats, live music, gambling and bookcases that open up to an exclusive VIP area, fellas and dames should have no problem getting in touch with their swanky side.

Feeling lucky? Guests will have the chance to “bet it all” on Blackjack or Texas Hold ‘Em while sipping martinis made of bathtub gin. Light appetizers provided by The Pourhouse. Enter The Rogue Song raffle to win prizes that would make a mobster proud.

Entertainment throughout the evening will be provided by the Jeremy Walker Trio and Sole to Soul Dance Conversion. The jazz trio will play 1920s standards (Cole Porter, Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington) with Sole to Soul dancers partnering and performing solo.

The Rogue Song’s centerpiece performance will be swell, with musical numbers ranging from clever covers to classic show-stoppers featuring Angela Keeton (mezzo-soprano), Minnesota Opera Teaching Artist

Bergen Baker (mezzo-soprano) and two former Minnesota Resident Artists: Brad Benoit (tenor) and Rodolfo Nieto (bass-baritone).

Tempo and Minnesota Opera have partnered with Uber to provide attendees (new Uber clients only) with a ride to or from The Pourhouse, up to $25 off.

Vintage attire admired but not required. Retail discounts available to The Rogue Song attendees at Via's Vintage, Goorin Bros., Denny Kemp Salon & Spa, Twin Cities Magic and Costume and CostumeRentals. Prizes will be awarded, so get your glad rags on! Best Dressed Fella will win a handmade hat from Goorin Bros. (a $125 value) and Best Dressed Dame will win a hair fascinator from L'AVENIR (an $85 value) and a gift certificate from Via's Vintage (a $75 value). "Best Dressed" will be chosen by the Twin Cities' premiere Image Consultant, Alice Sydow. More information on her at ivegotyourstyle.com.

Feeling especially naughty? Purchase VIP tickets for free hooch, scantily clad women and all sorts of other sinful delights! Say the password to unlock the hidden door to The Hooch Room and enjoy the following benefits: exclusive burlesque performances by Les Folies Risque and local/national superstar Sweetpea; complimentary tastings of Absolut Hibiskus vodka, Beefeater gin and Jameson whiskey plus a champagne fountain courtesy of Southern Wine & Spirits; complimentary passed hors d'oeuvres; gift bags; and savings up to $40 off Uber transportation to and from The Pourhouse. VIP also offers a direct view of the main stage. Space is very limited for The Hooch Room and VIP tickets.

Purchase tickets at mnoopera.org/roguesong or call the Minnesota Opera Ticket Office at 612.333.6669, Monday–Friday, 9am–6pm.

Not a Tempo member? It's not too late to join with this special offer.
